

To: All SEVIS Users

Date: Dec. 20, 2016

Re: Download the December 2016 Edition of the SEVP Spotlight

Number: 1612-05

General Information

On Dec. 20, 2016, the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) published its quarterly newsletter, the SEVP Spotlight.

This edition features SEVP Director Lou Farrell reflecting on 2016 and the progress SEVP has made during the last 12 months. Some milestones include:

- SEVP's increased outreach to stakeholders.
- The launch of the STEM OPT Hub.
- New SEVP policy guidance.
- The ongoing modernization of the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System.

This edition also includes:

- The announcement of Josh Schrier joining the Field Representative Unit as its eastern region section chief.
- An interview with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Blue Campaign.
- Information about upcoming Study in the States enhancements.

To read more program updates from SEVP, download the December 2016 edition of the SEVP Spotlight on Study in the States.

Comments

To comment on this Broadcast Message, please email SEVP@ice.dhs.gov with "Broadcast Message 1612-05 Comment" entered in the subject line.

Disclaimer

The Broadcast Message is not a substitute for applicable legal requirements, nor is it itself a rule or a final action by SEVP. It is not intended to, does not, and may not be relied upon to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by any party in any administrative, civil or criminal matter.